67 minutes for Madiba

On the occasion of the Nelson Mandela International Day celebrated on 18 July every year, the UN invites everyone to spend 67 minutes in a general interest activity. 67 minutes correspond to the 67 years of life that Nelson Mandela consecrated to the service of his country and humanity through a bitter struggle for human rights, social justice and democracy.

South Africa and the international community commemorate "Mandela Day" in honour of the ideals defended by the father of the Rainbow nation during his entire life.

In partnership with ENGEN-Gabon, the South African Embassy in Libreville will this year support a local orphanage, and wants to encourage everyone to make a difference in someone's life. The Embassy has posted a box in the reception area for the public to donate non-perishable food, toiletries and school material which will be sent to the "La Maison de l'Espérance" [House of Hope].
